

Sub : TA / DA payment to Adviser, Health, SUDA.

Personnel strength of Health Wing, SUDA is having only one Medical Professional. At present, there are three health projects namely IPP-VIII-(Extn.) O & M, R.C.H. Sub-Project, Asansol and DFID assisted HHW Scheme covering 22 municipalities run by Health Wing, SUDA. Expertise services of Dr. N.G. Gangopadhyay is being utilised as and when required, as Adviser, Health, SUDA on payment of sitting fee @ Rs. 250/- per day which was decided in the meeting on restructuring of Urban Health set up held in the chamber of MOS, MA Dept. and Vice-Chairperson, KMDA on 28th March, 2003. Present tenure of Dr. Gangopadhyay is up to 31st March, 2004. The expenditure incurred towards his sitting fee is debited out of R.C.H. Sub-Project, Asansol fund, where provision exist.

Before 31st March, 2003, Dr. N.G. Gangopadhyay was engaged as Adviser, Health, KMDA on contractual remuneration of Rs. 19,217/-.

Recently DFID assisted project has been launched in 11 ULBs (outside Kolkata Metropolitan Area) wef 01.02.2004 for a period of 1 year for the present. A meeting chaired by MOS, MA Dept. was held at SUDA on 12.02.2004 with regard to effective implementation of DFID assisted project. The other participants in the said meeting were Secretary, MA Dept., Director, SUDA; Chairpersons, CIC Health of 11 ULBs, representative of DHFW; and officials of Health Wing, SUDA. It was envisaged that time to time visit of SUDA officials to ULBs regarding sensitisation sessions, training, assisting in participatory need assessment and write up of project proposal, as well as monitoring will speed up the project. As Project Officer being the only Medical Professional, the expertise advice of Dr. Gangopadhyay at ULB level will be beneficial for the project.

It is therefore proposed that the Adviser, Health, SUDA may be paid TA / DA for the tour to the Municipalities apropos admissible rate of his consolidated pay as Adviser, Health, KMDA. There is provision of fund to incur the expenditure under the project.

Submitted for favour of kind approval.
